Ottawa Senators Foundation add YMCA camps in Kingston and Brockville to SENS Campership Program
More than 1,500 kids are expected to attend camps this summer

OTTAWA - The Ottawa Senators Foundation (@sensfoundation) announced today that they have added YMCA Camps in Kingston and Brockville to the SENS Campership Program which will increase the number of children attending camp to more than 1,500. The program will impact children and youth, aged 4 to 17, from 38 communities in eastern Ontario and 10 communities in western Quebec.

“The YMCA operate first class camp programs and facilities that impact hundreds of kids in Kingston and Brockville,” said Danielle Robinson, president and CEO of the Ottawa Senators Foundation. “The opportunity to increase our reach across the region and to partner with an organization with a long history of having a positive impact on the lives of children and youth was an easy decision for our foundation. We’re proud to provide an additional 400 children with the opportunity to experience summer camp.”

The other SENS Campership Program partners include:

- Boys and Girls Club of Ottawa Camp Smitty (residential camp)
- Christie Lake Kids Christie Lake Camp (residential camp)
- City of Ottawa City Champions’ Camp powered by the Ottawa Senators Foundation & Jumpstart (day camp)
- City of Ottawa Youth Sports Camp powered by Ottawa Senators Foundation & Jumpstart (day camp)
- Tim Horton Children’s Foundation:
 - Tim Horton Children’s Camp in Tatamagouche, N. S. (residential camp)
 - Camp des Voyageurs Tim Horton in Quyon, Que. (residential camp)
 - Tim Horton Memorial Camp in Parry Sound, Ont. (residential camp)
 - Tim Horton Onondaga Farms in St. George, Ont. (residential camp)
- Tim Horton Children’s Foundation Youth Leadership Program
 - Tim Horton Camp Whiteshell in Pinawa, Man. (residential camp)
